Dear Sir.

Mr. Stocks told me to day that he had had an interview with the chairman of the ways & means committee in regard to our sale of medals. and that he. (the chm) was going to hold out for part of the proceeds

Mr. Stocks has

RG104 E-1 Box 181

written to Lecy Carlile
about it.

In stead of sending me my wages as Dreque-
sted will you bekind
enough to pay them to my wife who I have told to call for them
and oblige

Yours Very Respectfy

Dear Sir.

Mr. Stocks told me to day that he had had an interview with the chairman of the ways & means committee in regard to our sale of medals and that he (the chm.) was going to hold out for part of the proceeds.

Mr. Stocks has written to Secy. Carlsile about it.

Instead of sending me my wages as I requested will you be kind enough to pay them to my wife who I have told to call for them and oblige.

Yours Very Respectfully
